

Rule 11: Excessive Pricing Regulatory Factors

The Arkansas Towing and Recovery Board may consider the following factors in determining if the pricing is excessive or unnecessary under A.C.A § 27-50-1203(e)(1)(C), and (D).

1. Tow vehicle(s) required and size of tow vehicle(s);
2. Total time to accomplish recovery/tow;
3. Number of employees required to safely complete recovery/tow;
4. Special equipment required to recover or tow;
5. Location of vehicle recovered/towed;
6. Hazardous materials or cargo recovery involved in recovery/tow;
7. Comparison with reasonable prices in region;
8. Weather conditions;
9. Computation of days of storage: midnight to midnight is presumed to be a reasonable period;
10. Any other relevant information having a direct affect on the pricing of the recovery/tow.
